Coming Home

Jane Fonda and Jon Voight are brilliant as an officer's wife and an embittered disabled Vietnam veteran who fall in love in this romantic drama. Adult situations, language, nudity. (R-2:07) Feb. 2,5,10

Europe On Ice

George Hamilton hosts the most spectacular ice show in the world. The million-dollar production—costumes, scenery, lights—has captivated audiences all over the world. A great HBO special! Feb. 3,5

The Last Waltz

"The Band," in its Thanksgiving Day, 1976 farewell concert, is joined by Eric Clapton, Neil Diamond, Bob Dylan, Joni Mitchell, Ringo Starr and others in an exciting landmark film. Mild language. (PG-1:47) Feb. 4

Silver Streak

Gene Wilder

Jill Clayburgh, Gene Wilder and Richard Pryor take part in the madcap mystery brewing aboard a transcontinental luxury train hurtling from Los Angeles to Chicago. And there's plenty to partake of—murder, intrigue, thrills, danger and lots of romance. Directed by Arthur Hiller (Love Story). Mild language. (PG-1:53) Feb. 1,6,9,11

The Norseman

Confronted by treacherous seas, strange lands and an alien, hostile people, Lee Majors and Cornel Wilde are Viking warriors in an action-filled epic adventure. Mild violence. (PG-1:30) Feb. 2,4,8

On Location: Norm Crosby

Don't reach for a dictionary, just take his word. Whether he's talking about politics or his "rappaport" with the audience, Norm Crosby is master of the English language—his own hilarious version! Feb. 2,5,15,23

Big Wednesday

Jan-Michael Vincent, William Katt and Gary Busey are young surfers facing the challenge of the big waves and the social transitions of the '60s. Adult humor, language. (PG-2:05) Feb. 1,4,7

Dramatic conflicts erupt among the men as they await help in one of the most gripping undersea rescue films ever made. Co-stars Stacy Keach and David Caradine. Mild physical violence, language. (PG-1:51) Feb. 1,3,6,9,12

F.I.S.T. Sylvester Stallone

"Rocky" Stallone co-authored and stars in a powerful story of a union leader and his growth from small-time trucker to middle-aged labor king. The exposé may well remind you of the headline stories of Senate investigations and the mysterious disappearance of a certain trucking czar. Director Norman Jewison faithfully re-creates the lifestyles and settings of the 30s, 40s and 50s. "The only recent American movie comparable to F.I.S.T. is The Godfather." (New West) Vulgarity, some violence. (PG-2:25) Feb. 2, 5, 8, 11, 15, 20

The Big Sleep Robert Mitchum Sara Miles

As Philip Marlowe, the toughest private eye who ever wore a trench coat, slapped a dame or split his knuckles on a jawbone, Robert Mitchum encounters blackmail, murder and the underworld of crime in this thriller based on Raymond Chandler's celebrated novel. Top-notch performances by Sarah Miles as an heiress, Candy Clark, John Mills, Oliver Reed and James Stewart. Nudity, adult language. (R-1:40) Feb. 4, 8, 15, 21, 23

Smokey and the Bandit

Burt Reynolds stars as CB's free-wheeling "Bandit" in this on-the-road action comedy. He gives a lift to elusive bride-to-be Sally Field, and the chase is on. The great one himself, Jackie Gleason, is "Smokey" the sheriff, in hot pursuit. Jerry Reed sings country/western songs. Language. (PG-1:40) Feb. 12, 17, 19

Diane Keaton

Looking for Mr. Goodbar

This hard-hitting shocker, based on Judith Rossner's bestseller, never pulls its punches. Diane Keaton, so delightful in comedy, reveals her versatility in a highly dramatic change-of-pace role as the singles barfly pursuing a course of self-destruction. Tuesday Weld, Richard Gere, Richard Kiley, William Atherton are superb. "Goodbar is unforgettable." (Liz Smith) Profanity, strong sexual content, brutality. (R-2:15) Feb. 25

National Lampoon presents

The makers of Animal House hurl a heap of riotous irreverence right through the TV screen! The big "Beav" arrives in a UFO made of wood and runs amok in NYC eating all the wood in sight! "Dragula, Queen of Darkness" and "The Turk" really do let it all hang out! Lynn Redgrave and a group of rowdies tell it (whether it's like it is or not!) You've got to see it to believe it could happen on TV! Highly sophisticated, very mature comedy material. Feb. 23,26

Cahill: United States Marshal

John Wayne

In a western with a difference, John Wayne neatly combines the life of a lawman with the problems of parenthood. While Duke scours the Panhandle for criminals, his own sons, 17 and 12, get involved in bank robbery and murder. Plenty of action when Wayne reaches for his guns. George Kennedy and Neville Brand co-star. "Clever twists... supporting cast includes solid talents." (Christian Science Monitor) Typical western violence. (PG-1:43) Feb. 24,27

Make no mistake about it, we're all affected by rip-offs. And this unique HBO documentary (which is entertaining as well as hard-hitting) points out several we're all subject to—and ways to avoid them. Rip-offs in food prices, advertising, the automobile industry, dream vacations, home building, deceptive packaging. And more. When host George Plimpton guides you through this "buyer beware" program, you'll view the adventures with an occasional chuckle. But, buyer beware! Feb. 28

The Swiss Conspiracy

David Janssen

Against the opulent background of the world's financial capital and the international playgrounds of the wealthy and famous, David Janssen battles to stop the most daring, sophisticated blackmail scheme ever plotted. Luscious Santa Berger is a prime target. Elke Sommer, John Ireland and John Saxon also take part in the intrigue. "A thriller you can bank on." (San Francisco Examiner) Mild language, adult situations, brief nudity. (PG-1:31) Feb. 26

College Basketball

Oklahoma City at Notre Dame The Irish are loaded with talent, depth and a yearning to be No. 1. Kelly Tripucka, Rich Brannin and Bruce Flowers could make it happen. To pull off an upset, the Chiefs need super playmaking from guards Allen Leavell and Calvin Montgomery. Feb. 21

South Carolina at Marquette Rarely do the Warriors lose at home, and with Bernard Toone around to score points they will put up their usual strong battle. But the Gamecocks have three big men who might be too much to handle: Jim Graziano, Cedrick Hordges and Jim Strikland. Feb. 27

Somethings very special from HBO

Flip through this guide again. Notice all the different kinds of programming. Great movies and sports are only part of the HBO story.

The Barry Manilow cover announces an exciting first in pay TV. But that show is just one of many fabulous entertainment specials produced especially for HBO subscribers!

Inside, two original illustrations announce two highly original HBO specials: Disco Beaver. . . from the National Lampoon and our first documentary—an amusing, enlightening look at consumer rip-offs.

El Grande de Coca-Cola is a wacky, wonderful HBO production of the long-running stage revue. On Winter Carnival '79—some unbelievably spectacular sports footage!

Still more? You bet. Europe on Ice. The Electric Light Orchestra. The incomparable Phyllis Diller and the unpredictable Norm

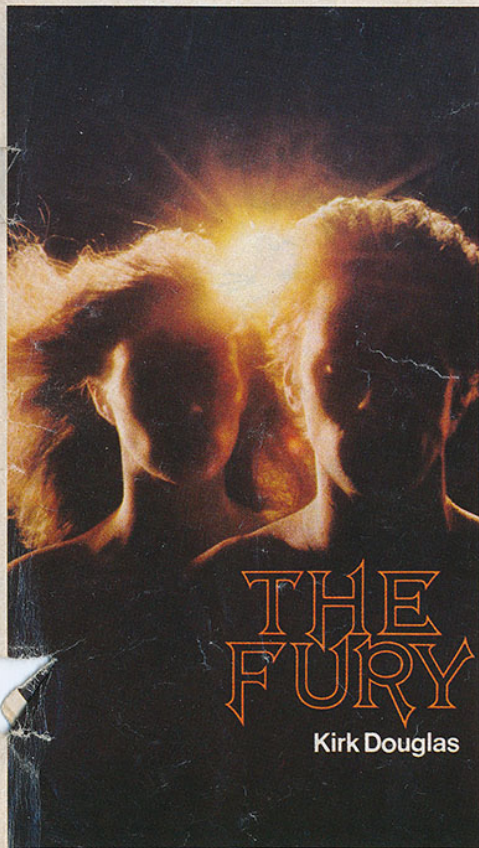

Crosby. And again David Sheehan has come up with a lineup of superstars for his unique UpClose.

Is February something special? Not at all. You can look forward to original HBO programming like this month after month!
